About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Lead end-to-end audit and advisory engagements, from planning through action closure, across the Americas region.
- Identify key risks, assess root causes, and deliver pragmatic recommendations that drive measurable business improvement.
- Ensure consistent, high-quality execution aligned with Internal Audit methodology, professional standards, and quality programs.
- Produce clear, impactful audit and advisory reports for senior management and key stakeholders.
- Build trusted relationships with senior leaders, acting as an objective and influential advisor across the region.
- Coach and develop auditors through onboarding, peer support, and knowledge sharing.
- Champion data-driven, digitally enabled and artificial intelligence-enabled audit practices with the Audit Intelligence Enablement team.

Essential Requirements

- Eight or more years of experience in internal audit, consulting, or regulated industry audit roles.
- Proven track record leading complex audit and advisory engagements with senior stakeholders.
- Strong knowledge of governance, risk management, and internal control frameworks.
- Experience applying data analytics and digital tools to enhance audit quality and effectiveness.
- Ability to challenge constructively, influence leaders, and communicate findings with confidence and professionalism.
- Fluency in English, with the ability to operate effectively in a regional, multicultural environment.
