About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

Partnering with the TA Head, GMs and ED, Portfolio and Pipeline Strategy role to build forward looking competitive readiness plans (strategy, tactical and scenario planning) that are rooted in understanding of the external competitive environment in close collaboration with IDS (built on CI team deliverables), and our internal product/portfolio strategies. This role ensures our product/portfolio teams are in a constant state of readiness to anticipate and act on external macro-environmental market changes, competitor new launches and other competitor strategies in a legal and compliant manner.

Supporting the TA Head, GMs and/or ED, Portfolio & Pipeline Strategy to provide input on assets to S&G, Development and BioMedical Research that ensures maximal commercial viability and launch value generation. This will include Life Cycle Management (LCM) planning for new indications, formulations and labels for in-line products as well as Integrated Evidence Plans and LCM Plans for early pipeline assets.

Supporting the TA Head, GMs and/or ED, Portfolio & Pipeline Strategy to help partner with US BD&L and US Market Access to provide country level input for BD&L evaluations in line with the C&BD deal archetype guidance. This will include input such as TPP development, stakeholder research, DC/IMB prep etc.

Support strategic evaluations and initiatives that inform the DA and TA strategies and support TA Head and the ED, Portfolio and Pipeline Strategy with input for TAL (eg. White Papers/Position Papers; what are competitive levers now & future; what are current gaps in portfolio mix; identification of emerging areas of unmet needs, etc.)

Support or lead the transition of late-stage pipeline assets from S&G to US Commercial 6+ months before FDP (timing determined with TAL and IMB), contributing to the preparation of the FDP submission package, including commercial strategy, market shaping activities, representing US Commercial needs at critical forums (GPT) up to transition to a full IPST.
